

1. ROCKY MOUNTAIN HARDWARE A talismanic motif with loads of whimsy. Hand of Fatima; $391, rockymountainhardware.com.
2. P.E. GUERIN Intricately etched for instant romance. Scallop; $2,500, peguerin.com.
3. ERIC MORRIS & COMPANY Hand-chased beading and basket motifs. Weave; $1,750, ericmorrisandco.com.
4. SUN VALLEY BRONZE Rustic modern simplicity. Square (DK-96); $418, sunvalleybronze.com.
5. MAISON VERVLOET Resplendent refinement. Renaissance Baroque; to the trade, erbutler.com.
6. VAN CRONENBURG Plainspoken Continental appeal. Avallon; to the trade, petervancronenburg.be.
7. VALESE Enchanting animal magnetism. Lion's Head; to the trade, erbutler.com.
8. BALTICA An elegantly curved silhouette. Sundance; $648, baltica.com.
9. NANZ Gleaming contemporary polish. Hexagonal (9708); to the trade, nanz.com.
10. CHARLES EDWARDS Weighty scale, lovely with age. Squared; $832, charlesedwards.com.
11. SÉRIE RARE Primitivist sophistication. Punique; $500, serierare.com.
12. DESU DESIGN Sleek, subtle lever. Pendulum; $315, shophorne.com.

as the first thing people see when they get to your front step, a knocker sets the mood like little else can. It should have some heft and feel heavy in the hand (the better to call your attention to a visitor on the stoop). Think of it as jewelry for your facade—a charming bit of bling that says hello before you even open the door.

FOR MORE KNOCKERS, GO TO VERANDA.COM