

hospitality design

august 2021 hospitalitydesign.com

big ideas
the hd expo issue

hd Presenter of expo+ conference

products technology

From the shower to hardware, innovation abounds

By Matt Dougherty

1

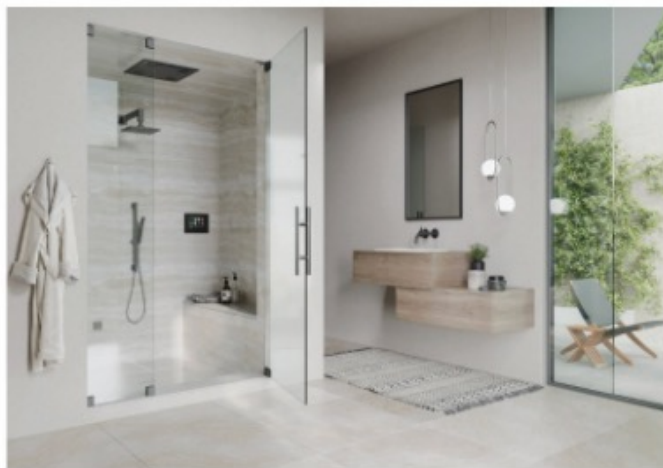

2

3

4

5

1

Providing access to power and USB outlets, Shadow from Doug Mockett & Company is a motorized pop up that quietly raises and lowers with a push of a button. MOCKETT.COM

2

Lutron Electronics' Alisse is a handcrafted, customizable metal control panel with one-, two-, and three-button configurations. Each metal plate is resistant to wear, fingerprints, and stains. LUTRON.COM

3

A collaboration with Level Home, Rocky Mountain Hardware's Level Bolt door hardware features invisible smart lock technology that can be customized with four of the company's collections. ROCKYMOUNTAINHARDWARE.COM

4

Modular Lighting Instruments' Smart Lotus fixtures are outfitted with LED drivers for control via a smartphone, Amazon Alexa, and other devices. SUPERMODULAR.US

5

ThermaSol's HydroVive smart shower is a single, self-contained module with a ceiling-mounted body that is fully integrated into the shower. THERMASOL.COM